Advisory Board Offer Letter — Dr. Paulette L. Grey, MD

Date: _____

Dear Dr. Grey,

On behalf of Apps on Demand LLC, we are pleased to extend this offer for you to join our Advisory Board as a Clinical & EMS Advisor.

Rapid Cortex is a next-generation operational intelligence platform built for 911 centers, emergency communications centers, campus safety organizations, and venue security operations. Our mission is to deliver intelligence at the speed of response, enhancing operations without replacing the professionals who protect communities every day.

Advisory Lane

Your advisory focus at Rapid Cortex will be:

- Clinical credibility, EMS and medical operations advisory, and outreach to emergency medical services agencies and first responder organizations

Responsibilities

- Advise leadership on business strategy and market positioning within your area of expertise
- Participate in quarterly advisory board meetings (remote, approximately 60 minutes)
- Be available for ad hoc strategic calls as reasonably needed (estimated 1–2 hours per month)
- Facilitate introductions to relevant contacts, partners, or investors where appropriate
- Provide honest, direct feedback on product direction, go-to-market strategy, and operational decisions

Equity Compensation

In recognition of your advisory contributions, Rapid Cortex will grant you an equity interest in Apps on Demand LLC as follows:

Equity Grant	1.25% (12-month cliff, 24-month vest)
Vesting Schedule	24 months from grant date
Cliff	12 months — no equity vests before 12 months of service
Acceleration	None unless agreed in writing
Form	The Company, in consultation with legal and tax advisors, will determine the form of award, which may include a profits interest, restricted membership interest, unit award, option, phantom-equity award, or other equity-equivalent arrangement. The Company will use a structure intended to preserve the agreed economic value, subject to applicable law, tax requirements, and the Company's Operating Agreement.

This advisory role is unpaid. The equity grant described above represents your full compensation for advisory services rendered under this agreement.

Dilution Statement

The equity interest is subject to dilution from future issuances of membership interests, profits interests, options, warrants, convertible instruments, equity incentive pools, financings, acquisitions, and other authorized equity transactions.

Term and Termination

- This advisory relationship commences upon execution of the formal Advisory Agreement and continues for an initial term of 24 months.
- Either party may terminate this relationship with 30 days' written notice.
- Upon termination, unvested equity shall be forfeited. The Company shall have the option, but not the obligation, to repurchase any vested equity interest held by the Recipient at fair market value, or at such other price and on such other terms as permitted by the Operating Agreement and applicable law.
- Advisor agrees to maintain the confidentiality of all non-public information relating to Rapid Cortex.

Confidentiality and Conflicts

- Advisor agrees not to disclose confidential business information, customer data, or proprietary technology to any third party.
- Advisor represents that this advisory relationship does not conflict with any existing employment agreement, non-compete, or fiduciary obligation.
- Any actual or potential conflict of interest must be disclosed in writing to Rapid Cortex leadership within 10 days of becoming aware of it.

We look forward to building something meaningful together. Please review, sign, and return this letter to confirm your acceptance. A formal Advisory Agreement will follow.

Sincerely,

Chief Revenue Officer Offer — Teri Andrews

Dear Teri,

On behalf of Rapid Cortex and Apps on Demand LLC, we are pleased to extend this offer for you to join as Chief Revenue Officer (CRO).

Role & Responsibilities

- Own and execute the full revenue strategy for Rapid Cortex across Core (911), Campus, Venue, and Connect product lines
- Build and manage the national sales pipeline from first outreach through pilot conversion and contract close
- Develop and execute strategic partnerships with CAD providers, public safety associations, universities, and enterprise customers
- Represent Rapid Cortex at industry events, conferences, and in key customer conversations
- Build and lead the revenue organization as the company grows
- Report directly to the Founder & CEO with full accountability for revenue performance

Equity Compensation

In recognition of your independent contractor services to Rapid Cortex, operated by Apps on Demand LLC (the “Company”), the Company will grant you the equity interest described below, subject to the Company’s Operating Agreement and a separate formal equity grant agreement.

Equity Grant	5.5% membership interest in Apps on Demand LLC, subject to the vesting schedule below.
Vesting Schedule	The equity grant will vest over thirty-six (36) months of continuous service.
12-Month Cliff	No equity will vest before the first twelve (12) months of service. On the first anniversary of the grant date, one-third (1/3) of the equity grant will vest.
Monthly Vesting After Cliff	The remaining two-thirds (2/3) of the equity grant will vest in equal monthly installments over the following twenty-four (24) months, provided you continue providing services to the Company.
Unvested Equity	Any unvested equity will automatically be forfeited if services end for any reason before the applicable vesting date, subject to the final equity grant documents and Operating Agreement.
Acceleration	No acceleration of unvested equity will occur unless approved in writing by the Company or specifically provided in the final equity grant agreement.
Form	The Company, in consultation with legal and tax advisors, will determine the form of award, which may include a profits interest, restricted membership interest, unit award, option, phantom-equity award, or other equity-equivalent arrangement. The Company will use a structure intended to preserve the agreed economic value, subject to applicable law, tax requirements, and the Company’s Operating Agreement.

Change-in-Control / Exit Incentive

If the Company undergoes a sale, merger, acquisition, or other qualifying change in control while you are actively providing services to the Company, you may become eligible for additional transaction-based compensation so that your total economic participation in the transaction equals:

Transaction Value	Total Economic Participation
Sale value of at least $50 million but less than $75 million	6.5%
Sale value of at least $75 million but less than $100 million	7.5%
Sale value of $100 million or more	8.5%

The percentages above are intended to represent your total economic participation in the transaction, including any vested equity interest already held, and are not additional percentages on top of the 5.00% base equity grant.

Any transaction-based incentive will be subject to the final transaction documents, applicable distribution priorities, debt repayment, transaction costs, taxes, escrow or holdback amounts, and any rights senior to the advisory equity interest.

Services Acknowledgment

Contractor acknowledges that no salary, wages, employee benefits, paid leave, or other employee compensation is guaranteed under this offer. The equity compensation described above represents Contractor's full compensation for services rendered under this Agreement unless the Company approves additional compensation, commissions, incentive payments, or expense reimbursement in a separate written agreement.

Dilution Statement

Fully Diluted Basis. For purposes of this offer and any related equity grant, "Fully Diluted Basis" means all outstanding membership interests, units, options, profits interests, warrants, convertible securities, reserved equity pool interests, and any other rights to acquire equity, calculated immediately after giving effect to the grant.

- Upon termination, unvested equity shall be forfeited. The Company shall have the option, but not the obligation, to repurchase any vested equity interest held by the Recipient at fair market value, or at such other price and on such other terms as permitted by the Operating Agreement and applicable law.

Independent Contractor Relationship

The parties acknowledge that Contractor is an independent contractor and not an employee, officer, partner, agent, joint venturer, or legal representative of the Company. Contractor has no authority to bind the Company, enter into agreements on behalf of the Company, incur obligations, make pricing commitments, or otherwise represent that Contractor has authority to act for the Company unless specifically authorized in writing by the Founder or another authorized Company representative.

Contractor is responsible for all federal, state, and local taxes, self-employment taxes, insurance, permits, licenses, and other obligations arising from payments or equity compensation received under this Agreement. Contractor will not be eligible for Company employee benefits, unemployment benefits, workers' compensation coverage, paid leave, or other employee programs unless separately required by law or approved in writing by the Company.

Contractor will determine the manner and means of performing the services, subject to agreed deliverables, deadlines, confidentiality obligations, product and brand standards, and reasonable coordination requirements with Company leadership.

Conditions Precedent

- Completion of a 60-day working period with agreed deliverables before the equity grant formally activates.

30-Day Trial Deliverables

- Submit a written 90-day revenue plan: market prioritization, target organizations, outreach cadence, and pilot conversion strategy
- Identify and initiate contact with a minimum of 10 target organizations across Core, Campus, or Venue markets
- Deliver at least two qualified discovery calls with real buyers
- Build or propose a CRM structure, pipeline stages, and a weekly executive reporting dashboard

- Participate in at least one external industry or market-facing activity (event, association, or conference)

Confidentiality and Conflicts

- You agree not to disclose confidential business information, customer data, or proprietary technology to any third party.
- You represent that this role does not conflict with any existing employment agreement, non-compete, or fiduciary obligation.

We are excited about the possibility of building Rapid Cortex together. Please review, sign, and return this letter. A formal Equity Agreement will follow upon successful completion of the 60-day period.

Sincerely,

Dr. Jeffrey W. Coleman Jr.

Marketing Director Offer Letter — Angelo F. Maltese

Date: _____

Dear Angelo,

On behalf of Rapid Cortex and Apps on Demand LLC, we are pleased to extend this offer for you to join our team as Marketing Director.

Rapid Cortex is a next-generation AI-powered operational intelligence platform built for 911 centers, emergency communications centers, campus safety organizations, and venue security operations. Our mission is to deliver intelligence at the speed of response — enhancing operations without replacing the professionals who protect communities every day.

Role & Responsibilities

- Own and execute Rapid Cortex's marketing strategy across all channels and product lines — Core, Campus, Venue, and Connect
- Build and manage the full marketing infrastructure: analytics stack, reporting dashboards, attribution modeling, and campaign governance
- Design and execute B2B demand generation programs targeting 911 centers, campus safety organizations, venue operators, and government agencies
- Lead digital marketing execution, including paid search, programmatic, social, SEO, and email campaigns
- Develop and maintain marketing KPI reporting and present weekly performance dashboards to leadership
- Support pipeline development in collaboration with the CRO — aligning marketing spend to revenue and pilot conversion targets
- Manage agency partners, vendor relationships, and marketing budget
- Build and maintain Rapid Cortex brand standards, content strategy, and thought leadership positioning

Compensation

In recognition of your anticipated executive services to the Company, Rapid Cortex, operated by Apps on Demand LLC (the “Company”), will grant you an equity interest in the Company, subject to the Company’s Operating Agreement and a separate formal equity grant agreement.

Equity Grant	5.00% membership interest in Apps on Demand LLC, subject to the vesting schedule below.
Vesting Schedule	The equity grant will vest over thirty-six (36) months of continuous service.
12-Month Cliff	No equity will vest before the first twelve (12) months of service. On the first anniversary of the grant date, one-third (1/3) of the equity grant will vest.
Monthly Vesting After Cliff	The remaining two-thirds (2/3) of the equity grant will vest in equal monthly installments over the following twenty-four (24) months, provided you continue providing services to the Company.
Unvested Equity	Any unvested equity will automatically be forfeited if services end for any reason before the applicable vesting date, subject to the final equity grant documents and Operating Agreement.

Acceleration	No acceleration of unvested equity will occur unless approved in writing by the Company or specifically provided in the final equity grant agreement.
Form	The Company, in consultation with legal and tax advisors, will determine the form of award, which may include a profits interest, restricted membership interest, unit award, option, phantom-equity award, or other equity-equivalent arrangement. The Company will use a structure intended to preserve the agreed economic value, subject to applicable law, tax requirements, and the Company's Operating Agreement.

Change-in-Control / Exit Incentive

If the Company undergoes a sale, merger, acquisition, or other qualifying change in control while you are actively providing services to the Company, you may become eligible for additional transaction-based compensation so that your total economic participation in the transaction equals:

Transaction Value	Total Economic Participation
Sale value of at least $50 million but less than $75 million	6.00%
Sale value of at least $75 million but less than $100 million	7.00%
Sale value of $100 million or more	8.00%

The percentages above are intended to represent your total economic participation in the transaction, including any vested equity interest already held, and are not additional percentages on top of the 5.00% base equity grant.

Any transaction-based incentive will be subject to the final transaction documents, applicable distribution priorities, debt repayment, transaction costs, taxes, escrow or holdback amounts, and any rights senior to the advisory equity interest.

Services Acknowledgment

Contractor acknowledges that no salary, wages, employee benefits, paid leave, or other employee compensation is guaranteed under this offer. The equity compensation described above represents Contractor's full compensation for services rendered under this Agreement unless the Company approves additional compensation, commissions, incentive payments, or expense reimbursement in a separate written agreement.

Dilution Statement

Fully Diluted Basis. For purposes of this offer and any related equity grant, "Fully Diluted Basis" means all outstanding membership interests, units, options, profits interests, warrants, convertible securities, reserved equity pool interests, and any other rights to acquire equity, calculated immediately after giving effect to the grant.

- Upon termination, unvested equity shall be forfeited. The Company shall have the option, but not the obligation, to repurchase any vested equity interest held by the Recipient at fair market value, or at such other price and on such other terms as permitted by the Operating Agreement and applicable law.

Independent Contractor Relationship

The parties acknowledge that Contractor is an independent contractor and not an employee, officer, partner, agent, joint venturer, or legal representative of the Company. Contractor has no authority to bind the Company, enter into agreements on behalf of the Company, incur obligations, make pricing commitments, or otherwise represent that Contractor has authority to act for the Company unless specifically authorized in writing by the Founder or another authorized Company representative.

Contractor is responsible for all federal, state, and local taxes, self-employment taxes, insurance, permits, licenses, and other obligations arising from payments or equity compensation received under this Agreement. Contractor will not be eligible for Company employee benefits, unemployment benefits, workers' compensation coverage, paid leave, or other employee programs unless separately required by law or approved in writing by the Company.

Contractor will determine the manner and means of performing the services, subject to agreed deliverables, deadlines, confidentiality obligations, product and brand standards, and reasonable coordination requirements with Company leadership.

Deliverables

Within the first 60 days, we expect the following to be delivered:

- Complete audit of existing Rapid Cortex digital presence, brand assets, and any current marketing activity
- Propose and implement analytics infrastructure — GA4, BigQuery, or equivalent — with an executive dashboard for pipeline visibility
- Deliver a written 90-day marketing plan: channels, budget allocation, target audiences, KPIs, and campaign calendar
- Establish marketing-to-sales alignment cadence with the CRO — shared pipeline definitions, lead handoff process, and weekly reporting rhythm
- Identify at least two high-priority conferences or industry events (APCO, NENA, IACP, or equivalent) for Rapid Cortex presence planning

Reporting & Structure

- Communicates closely with the Founder & CEO, with close collaboration with the CRO
- This is a remote role — location flexible within the United States

Confidentiality & Agreements

- Execution of Rapid Cortex's standard Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure Agreement is required before the start date
- Completion of the Rapid Cortex Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form is required before execution of this offer
- All marketing materials, campaign assets, analytics work product, and creative developed for Rapid Cortex are the intellectual property of Apps on Demand LLC

We are excited about the possibility of building Rapid Cortex together. Please review, sign, and return this letter. A formal Equity Agreement will follow upon successful completion of the 60-day period.

Sincerely,
